Here it is February - and love is in the air. Speaking of love, I'm really loving the idea that two fund raisers are already in the works. Save June 12th for our community Bar-B-Q. We've done this before and we have been successful. You're going to hear a lot more about this, but I want you to put it on your calendar and then sign up to DO something. If we all do something, it will make for a "fun" time, and you'll really feel that you are an Estero Bay Republican Woman.

Your income tax forms are being distributed. This is a lot of fun and you don't have to work very hard - just count your ear-rings, trees, beds, shoes, mugs, t.v.'s, etc, etc.

Oh.....and back to love. Check out how green the hills are.

Aren't we lucky to live where we live!

Speaker: Dale Stockdale, Candidate for U S Congress 23rd district currently held by Lois Capps.

Dave Stockdale was raised in a small farming community in rural Ohio. He graduated in 1977 from The College of Wooster with a degree in English and Philosophy. Two days after graduation, he packed his VW bug and moved to Washington, D.C., where he quickly learned the ins and outs of life "inside the Beltway." But in 1984, like millions before them, Dave and his wife, Jennifer, decided to move to California for a better life. Settling in Santa Maria. Dave began his own health and life insurance agency, and the couple started their family. A long-time student of history and politics, Dave says he is a "citizen candidate" who will fight for a strong national defense, sound fiscal policies, and most important, a limited and Constitutional approach to Federal government. Dave and Jennifer have five children and a grandchild due in May.

BACK TO BASICS; Jobs, Freedom and Personal Responsibility.

Announcements:

March 5-7 CFRW-Central Division conference, Fresno

“WOMEN IN NUMBERS WIN” Victory in 2010

Our club will be participating in a Drawing to be held at the conference. Members please be prepared to donate to this at the luncheon.

April 18, 2010 Advocacy Workshop

March 27, 2010 Karl Rove will be speaking at the Madonna Inn. No further details at this time but will pass along as they come in.

Chairman Christine Holmberg wants to remind all to continue to save the Box tops. Each one of these Box tops is worth 10 cents to teachers. Since 1996 the program has given 3 million dollars to teachers all over the country. If you go to www.bboxtopsforeducation.com you can see a list of the various companies/products that participate. Bring those box tops with you to the luncheon.

For those with access to the Internet I ask you to go have a look at our website, ebrwf.com.

Members, here we go again! We are now planning our biggest fundraiser of the year! Our theme is “A Patriotic Tribute to our Veterans and our Men and Women in Uniform”.

Please help as much as you can so that the event will be a great success. The event will take place on Saturday, June 12, 2010 from 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm at the Morro Bay Veteran’s Memorial Building. We will be serving salmon and chicken and hot dogs for the kids. We plan to have Exhibits, opportunity drawings for small fun prizes, and a Silent Auction.

We need lots of volunteers before, during, and after the event. Here is a sample of the jobs we will have, I will have signup sheets starting at the February lunch. Just remember, we’ve done this before, we have a big book of information, we know how to do the job, and we just need volunteers to do the work. Please call me to get your name on the list of helpers.

Timothy P. Carney

Memberships Renewals are due. You can get the form off the the website, call Althea Starble 772-7729, Marta Zanghi 995-2591 or any other board member listed on the chairman page.

This is one of the most important years facing the Republican Party. We can not sit around complaining we have to work and that means getting our membership to fight the fight. We need to join in the cause and each and every one of us also needs to bring some new members on board.

Each of us can be a resource for others but we must be informed of facts and other information. I will try to add websites each month that will help you gather that information. The Heritage Foundation at www.heritage.org is at the top of the list. Click around and read. There is so much your head can spin, every topic is covered and you will have the knowledge to spread and educate.

Reminder to all members:

EBRWF Standing Rules

1. Membership lists are NEVER to be circulated outside membership of the Local Club except for the lists that accompany the payment of dues to the California Fedration of Republican Women.

A Tasty Recipe for Conservative Victory

Posted By Bobby Eberle on December 1, 2009 at 9:12 am

To the people in Washington... it does take a rocket scientist to recognize what's going on around the country. It's clear why Republicans lost power, and it is certainly clear that people are learning what Democrats will do when given full power in government. America is not a socialist country, yet that's exactly the type of country Barack Obama, Nancy Pelosi, and Harry Reid want to see. So, how does the Republican Party regain its footing? It's simple, really. The leaders of the Republican Party only have to look around. The answer is staring them in the face. They lost because they strayed from conservatism and adopted the "let's just stay in power" philosophy. That's a recipe for disaster...

Here's a recipe for winning... First, here's some interesting information from a new poll in the Washington Post. The poll was taken of Republicans and Republican-leaning adults. When asked whether the leadership of the Republican Party was taking the party in the right direction, 76% said yes in 2005. Only 23% said no. Now, in 2009, the 76% has dropped to 49%, and the "wrong direction" response jumped to 42%. Something is clearly wrong. Only 37% of Republicans in the survey felt that the Republican Party shared their views on most issues. Only 37%! If that's all the support the party can generate, then we are in trouble. Looking at the ideological map, 72% of Republicans in the survey consider themselves to be conservative. Only 22% said they were moderate. Another survey in the news recently showed that 40% of the country considered themselves to be conservative, while only 20% considered themselves to be liberal. Yet, which direction do party leaders want to move? Do they want to attract more people by being conservative? Uh... no. On the issues, respondents felt that the party puts too little emphasis on taxes, federal spending, illegal immigration, and the economy and jobs. Federal spending was supposedly one of our core beliefs, right? Yet that and corruption are what started to turn the tide of public opinion away from the Republican Party over the last decade. So, what does the party do? Here's a recipe for success. Please feel free to tweak it to your particular taste. Recipe for Conservative Victory.

Ingredients

- 10 lbs of guts
- 7 lbs of conservative philosophy
- 3 lbs of common sense
- 2 cups of real world experiences
- 2 cups of ethics
- 4 tbsp of passion
- 3 tbsp charisma
- 1 pinch of humor

Preparation

Find 10 lbs of guts. This is easier said than done, and is by far the hardest part of the recipe. This may take a while, so START NOW!

Once guts have been acquired and verified, mix in the conservative philosophy. This ingredient is easy to find, but is often contaminated or mislabeled. Make sure conservative philosophy is 100% pure. Blend in common sense, making sure it clings to the conservative philosophy, which will produce a taste quite appealing to most people.

Sprinkle in the 2 cups of real world experiences. This ingredient should not be excluded as the result produced a hard, card board effect that may be appetizing to some, but leaves most people wondering what got left out.

Stir in 2 cups of ethics. Recipe will taste the same without it, but it will go bad very soon. The dish is even better as leftovers years from now, so don't forget the ethics. Add 4 tbsp of passion. This gives the dish some "kick." People don't want to be put to sleep, they want to be energized. Passion is the key. The 3 tbsp of charisma are becoming more essential. Although not necessary for a healthy and satisfying dish, charisma attracts people to try it in the first place. Finally, add a pinch of humor to keep people interested. Bake for a year or so... Not too long as there is much work to do. That's it... that's all it takes. Some ingredients are hard to find, but the preparation is easy, and Americans will love it! Give it a try. To our leaders in Washington, I suggest shopping for the ingredients now. We have elections soon and guts are very hard to find.
